Frequently Asked Questions

As of April 19, 2021

What does IAFP have planned for IAFP 2021 in Phoenix, Arizona?

IAFP is planning responsibly for an in-person meeting to be held at the Phoenix Convention Center (PCC). PCC is a GBAC Star™ Accredited Facility and has implemented strict hygiene practices to help protect their guests. The PCC plan is provided HERE.

The United States expects to have COVID-19 vaccinations for all adults by the end of May. We will continue to plan responsibly for an in-person meeting for those who are able to attend.

Will remote attendance be possible?

Remote attendance (virtual attendance) will be possible for those unable to be in Phoenix. Registration for virtual attendance is available on the IAFP 2021 website.

Will presentations be recorded for later access?

As in past years, all presentations (where speakers agree) will be recorded and available after conclusion of IAFP 2021 for all participants to playback.

Will there be a registration fee for remote attendees?

Yes, registration fees are now posted on the Annual Meeting website.

Can my “in-person” registration be converted to a “remote” attendee registration?

Yes, this will be possible up to July 15; as that is the date for a full refund under the revised cancellation policy.

What if I’m presenting at IAFP 2021?

Presentation options include: in-person, remote or recorded. You will be contacted by IAFP’s Program Coordinator or your session organizer with additional details as the meeting dates draw nearer.

What is IAFP's refund policy for meeting registration?

IAFP relaxed cancellation fees for IAFP 2021. No cancellation fee will be charged for cancellations received on or before July 14. No refunds will be made after July 14; however, registrations may be transferred to a colleague with written notification. Registration fees cannot be applied to future meetings. Refunds will be processed when received. Optional items purchased are NOT refundable.

Is it possible to exhibit virtually?

IAFP added a virtual booth option for those exhibitors wanting to reach the virtual attendees and for those exhibitors who are not able to travel to Phoenix. Exhibitors may exhibit three ways: on-site only, virtual only, and on-site and virtual combined.

What is the refund policy for exhibit booths?

IAFP also relaxed cancellation fees for exhibits at IAFP 2021. Payment was due in full on March 31. Exhibitors registering after March 31 must pay their booth charge in full at time of making their reservation. A full refund is available on cancellations received on or before July 1. Cancellations received after July 1 will receive a refund, less a $600 processing fee. Cancellations received on or after July 15 will not receive a refund.
