MEETING APP

The IAFP 2019 meeting app gives exhibitors the opportunity to increase visibility to all conference attendees. Exhibitors can upload brochures, marketing materials and company information to the app. Attendees will be able to browse exhibitor information anytime using their smartphones.

2018 was our first year exhibiting at IAFP. It was a wonderful way to highlight the work we have done and the many ways we can work with stakeholders in the food industry in the future. Sanitation is such a core part of food safety. We feel the IAFP conference is the right venue to reach food safety leaders, academic partners as well as up and coming professionals. We look forward to exhibiting again next year.

Director, Alliance for Advanced Sanitation
