

What to know food availability during the IAFP conference

Are meals provided during the day?

- Breakfasts are not provided, but there are coffee and snack breaks in the mornings and afternoons in the Exhibit Hall.
- Buffet lunches are provided on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the exhibit hall with open seating for networking.
- Water, tea, and coffee stations are placed at several points in the convention center and the exhibit hall during the 10:00am and 3:00pm breaks between sessions.

What about in the evenings?

- Evening receptions with various free hors d'oeuvres and drinks are hosted in the Exhibit Hall after the sessions while you visit exhibitors and talk to poster presenters.
- Dinner is a great time to explore the area with colleagues!

What is the banquet?

- The Awards Banquet is held on Wednesday evening and open to all registered attendees. You may wish to organize a group ahead of time to sit together. Special meal requests must be made in advance.

For more details, visit <https://www.foodprotection.org/annualmeeting/hotel-and-travel/tips-for-attendees/>

