

Miscellaneous Tips for the IAFP Conference

Preparation

- Download the IAFP meeting app to plan your days.
- Connect with IAFP on LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter/X, and Instagram to receive updates, including photos of the annual meeting.
- Schedule meetings with colleagues in advance before schedules fill up.
- Bring plenty of contact cards, and write notes on those you receive to remind you of the conversation even after the meeting ends!

Afterwards

- Connect with speakers and other members after the meeting using IAFP Connect!
- Poster presenters might not always be at the poster when you visit, so leave your card and ask them to connect via email or IAFP Connect.

During the Meeting

- Decorate your badge with ribbons available near the IAFP Registration desk!
- If you are a speaker, make sure that your slides have been uploaded and you have connected with the moderator of your session.
- Engage with the IAFP Foundation
 - Find great items at the Silent Auction, which help support Foundation initiatives.
 - Donating at the Foundation booth will get you the coveted IAFP conference commemorative coin!
 - The Foundation provides travel scholarships to students, public health representatives, and scientists from developing countries, as well as other fantastic initiatives!

Enjoy the conference, make new connections, and share knowledge!

For more details, visit <https://www.foodprotection.org/annualmeeting/hotel-and-travel/tips-for-attendees/>

