

WELCOME BOOTH AT THE IAFP ANNUAL MEETING 2024

Please note that we are organizing a Welcome Booth for new members, first time attendees (who may be considering membership) and all other attendees of the IAFP 2024 annual meeting that want to explore and discuss the value of IAFP membership with those that have been active members for some time. But you can also ask us anything about this year's annual meeting!

We hope that this helps you to find your way and make the most of the conference, but also allows you to have an opportunity for a conversation about the value of joining the IAFP food safety family by sharing experiences with current IAFP members. The Welcome Booth is located near the IAFP Registration Desk.

- Sunday, July 14, 12:00-12:45pm, 5:00-5:45pm
